

RASPBERRY STITCH SCARF

With New Bind Off Option

The Casting On Couch

BEGIN

Video Guide: <https://youtu.be/e6gLuiuON6c>

Cast on 34sts with 10mm needles and a corresponding chunky yarn.

Note - This repeat works in multiples of 4 (plus 2 for the selvedge stitches, one st each end of the work), and 4 rows.

MAIN PATTERN

Row 1: Right side. K1, p until last st and k1.

Row 2: K1 * KPK, p3tog rep * until last st and k1

Row 3: K1, p until last st and k1. (As row 1).

Row 4: K1 * p3tog, KPK rep * and k1 at the end

Repeat rows 1 to 4 until your scarf is the right length for you.

I would recommend a length of 180cm or 71in, to which I would add tassels.

FINISHED MEASUREMENTS

Expect your scarf to finish appx 25.5cm or 10in wide.

CASTING OFF

Normally I would bind off on a right side row, knitwise.

However, I have an alternative bind off which gives the edge a more refined delicate lace appearance. One that I feel, looks more in keeping with the Raspberry stitch pattern itself. See below.

RASPBERRY STITCH BIND OFF

Cast off on what should be a row 2, a wrong side row.

Begin selvedge by k2 and casting off one.

Next * yf on RIGHT NEEDLE (treat yf as a stitch), cast off one.

P3tog, cast off one, yf on RIGHT NEEDLE, cast off one, k1, cast off, rep from * to end.

To summarise, you are creating yf's either side of the P3tog, to make up for the shortfall, instead of creating three sts from one as the usual pattern.

SUPER SIZED TASSELS

Create 5 tassels to either end of your work, (makes ten in total). See my video guide!

ABBREVIATIONS

KPK- Do the following all into the next st: K1, then p1, then k1 again.

(You create three sts from one).

K1- knit 1

Sts- stitches

Rep *- Keep repeating the sequence in between the first * & the rep *

P3tog- purl 3 sts together.

MATERIALS

An average scarf takes 7-8 50g balls depending on length required. Twilleys Freedom 100% chunky yarn was used in the video.

10mm needles

TENSION

Look for a ball band tension in stockinette stitch to match the Twilleys ball band tension.
10 stitches & 14 rows to 10cm or 4 inches in stockinette stitch.
